

Learn how to bring engagement into the mainstream of your organisation

Embedding Engagement

Overview

Engagement is no longer a 'nice to do' activity, yet the systems and decision-making processes often struggle to integrate engagement into their thinking.

This ONE-DAY course explores Embedding Engagement into organisational systems, processes and culture to improve the consistency, quality and value of the investment made into engagement.

As with all Aha! Consulting courses, our hallmark is practicality. You get the theory delivered in a way that is immediately useful.

Learning Outcomes

- Building the case for engagement with senior staff
- Tools for assessing the current and desired approach to engagement
- A model for building an embedding strategy to achieve the desired outcome

Participants

- C-Level Executives
- Engagement and Communications Managers/Staff
- Change Managers
- Project Coordinators /Managers
